out at the plate in the seventh inning last evening if ever a player was out. New York wants nothing it is not honestly entitled to. Such an unjust, dishonest decision as that of Umpire Swartwood in this case cap only injure the game. Mr. Swartwood has little to commend him for the trying position of umpire, and the sooner he or Mr. Nicholas Young realizes the fact the better it will be for the sport. Mr. Swartwood's articulatory apparatus and his brain are not on good terms, and he says things with his mouth that his brain insists a moment later ought to have been said differently. He is in doubt all the time about balls, strikes and fouls, and is as full of argument as an aged spinster with a rebellious stomach. It doesn't tend to elevate the sport to have the umpire, the players and spectators builty-ragging each other over questionable decisions. That is the case where Swartwood holds forth as umpire.

Umpire Swartwood perhaps goes on the principle; that two wrongs may make a right. He called Westervelt out at third yesterday whea the young pitcher had made a clever steal and slide. It sported a run for New York. Later, he called Stanford; safe at the plate when Schriver caught him by at least a foot. That run won the game for New York in place of the one Westervelt might have made.

Both tumbled down amit the spectators hissed and cried 'Shame!' Had Dailey not been the even-tempered giant that he is, Mr. Stehzel might have suffered merited retribution. President Byrne will file a complaint regarding this piece of rowdylsim with the Bhard of Directors of the League.

The Athletic Committee of the Nev York Athletic Club has completed ar angements for the fifty-second games which will take place at Travers Island and Hartford Railroad will run specia rains, starting from the One Hundred and wenty-ninth street station of the Third Avenue Elevated Railroad at 1, 1.30, Avenue Elevated Railroad at 1, 1.30, 2 and 2.30 o'clock for Pelham Manor. These trains will go direct to Pelham Manor without stop.

Mike Murphy, the famous trainer, left Travers Island to-day for New Haven, to make arrangements for the Yale team to come on by a special train, stopping at New Rochelle to-morrow morning. All the athletes who are selected to compete on the Yale team against the Oxfori University will be included in the thirty men who will represent Yale University at the N. Y. A. C. games. It is expected that C. Chadwick, the dark horse of Yale in the hammer-throwing event, may possibly defeat James S. Mitchell, who has been performing rather indifferently this Spring.

Doyle's grounder to Anson brought in Burke, but Jack was out. Davis started for third, and although Dahlen missed him by three feet Swartwood declared him out. Ward base on balls. Van Haltren out, Parrott to Anson. Three runs.

Fourth Inning—Wilmot out to Doyle, unassisted. Anson out, Davis to Doyle.

Judging by Sir Walter's form yesterday the son of Midlothan will be an important factor in the Suburhan Handicap. Sir Walter, Ramapo and Clifford ought to furnish a royal struggle. Sir Walter and Ramapo appear to be evenly matched while Clifford, to some extent, is an unknown quantity. It seems rather poorpolities on the part of Messrs. Rose & Leigh to keep Bramble's son in the stable. The celebrated axiom of "Father" William C. Daly, to the effect that "horses can't win money standing in their stalls," seems to money standing in their stalls," seems to apply in Clifford's case. Clifford has no cinch on the Suburban, and even if he has he would be better off for a few hard Doyle was caught ten feet from third, but Swartwood declared him safe. The umpire got even, declaring Doyle out at the plate although Jack got home safely on Van Haltren's bounder. Fuller filed out. No runs.

It is only just to say that Stafford was lishonest decision as that of Umpire

Irwin's "homer" in the sixth yesterday was good for four bases only because Burke ran in on the ball instead of running but. But it was a dandy line hit and a hard one to judge.

New York has plenty of points to pick up in base running. Why did Stafford stand as it paralyzed on first resterday while the coits were having fun with Farrelt on the way to third?

would be the star piece in a collection of baseball photos.

As for Umpire Swartwood's judgment on balls and strikes—well, there's nothing to add to what both teams and the spectators have had to say about it wherever he has been.

It's too had, dashing the hopes of an ambitious young player like Mr. Anson, even to make a Gotham holiday.

President Byrne, of the Brooklyn Club, is considerably worked up over the brutal exhibition made by Centrefielder Stensel, of Pittsburg, in yesterday's game. It was the first incident of the kind this peason, and unfortunately it happened on Ladles' Day. Dalley stood over the home-plate to catch Burna's throw-in of Glasscock's fly. It was a clean out for Stensel by at least three yards. In his rage at beling caught out, the Pittsburger deliberately threw himself at the Brooklyn catcher, butting him fiercely as they carbe together. Both tumbled down and the spectators hissed and cried 'Shame!" Had Dalley not been the even-tempered giant that he is, Mr. Stehsel might have suffered merited retribution. President Byrne will file a complaint regarding this piece of rowdyism with the Bpard of Directors of the League.
